1. Between  source determined that the assembly area of the KVP in Friedrichsfelde had been considerably enlarged. It extended east of the Treskow Allee and north of the Rummelsburg-Biesdorf railroad line as far as north of the estate. Source estimated that 3,000 to 4,000 troops and 200 to 250 vehicles were assembled there. Troops observed had dark-blue, red and black service color. On 25 July, a conference of senior KVP officers was held in this restricted area. About 45 sedans were seen in front of the entrance at about 11 a.m.<sup>1</sup>
